

OPEN CALL

INI PROJECT SUMMER RESIDENCY 2024

INI Project announces an open call for applications for a three-month residency at INI Project/PROSTOR for July-September 2024. The call is open to all artists, curators, filmmakers, environmentalists, activists, writers, lawyers, designers, theorists, artist duos or groups, regardless of age, focus or educational background. The call is open to anyone who is interested in participating in INI Space's program and needs time and space to work that can develop or jumpstart other creative processes.

The residency will take place as part of a year-long series of four thematically linked blocks entitled Erosion of Bodies, the focus of which is an exploration of the possibilities of living in a world in which the illusion of well-being until recently taken for granted is inexorably crumbling. The programme considers how our basic needs are met at the level of the individual and collective bodies that we are. We are looking for projects that seek to open up ways of understanding interdependencies, rethink geological or biochemical boundaries in trans-bodily regimes, or otherwise seek reciprocity and solidarity across ecosystems, layers of time, national borders, or other political-economic crises.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- expert consultations with members of the INI Project team
- production support for the realization of works and the organization of public events
- a studio with facilities for the duration of the residency
- the residency will be supported by an honorarium of 30,000 CZK

WHAT WE REQUIRE:

- a cover letter (with a description of the intended project) of no more than two standard pages (3600 characters)
- a structured CV of the applicant* and a portfolio with documentation of work from recent provisional timetable for the residency, including at least three public events (pop-up, workshop, discussion, exhibition, artist talk etc.)
- Žádost o udělení tvůrčího pobytu zašlete prosím na e-mail: iniproject.promo@gmail.com, do předmětu uveďte "OPENCALL 2024". Uzávěrka přihlášek je 30. května 2024

Please, send the application for the residency to iniproject.promo@gmail.com, include "OPENCALL 2024" in the subject line of the email. Application deadline is 30 May 2024.

Selection will be made in two rounds. The second round will be an interview over residency details. Selected writers will be notified of the results by June 15, 2024.

The organizer reserves the right not to hold the residency. The residency can be realized thanks to the support of the Ministry of Culture and the City of Prague.
